

Dear Customer,

RE: THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION ACT (THE POPI ACT)

The POPI Act will become fully applicable to all businesses on 1 July 2021.

In terms of the POPI ACT we inform you that we collect certain of your personal information for the purposes of:

- Processing orders received from you;
- Credit vetting;
- Providing you with information related to the products we sell;
- Compliance with other laws;
- Reporting to the directors and shareholder of PowerMan;
- Performing our obligations and enforcing any rights in terms of the credit agreements and other agreements entered with you.

In terms of the personal information, we collect we have put in place all reasonable precautions required in order to safeguard your information and we ensure you that no unauthorized person shall have access to the information we collect, and that information is only processed for the reason set out above.

We inform you that PowerMan shall on request:

- Provide you with access to all the personal information we have collected from you;
- Destroy your personal information, unless we are required to retain such information in respect of the enforcement of our rights or in terms of any applicable law;
- Amend, rectify, or correct any personal information we have incorrectly recorded.

We further inform you that you may object to the collection and processing of your personal information. However, we must inform that the refusal to allow the processing and collection of personal information may have the result that we are unable to process orders placed by you as we require this information to process the orders, invoice the correct parties and comply with other relevant legislation.

In terms of section 18(1) of the POPI Act, we inform you that the Responsible Party is:
